WHEREAS, The South Dakota Public Television Network and Public Radio offer a unique service to the citizens of South Dakota by broadcasting programs covering a wide perspective of cultural, educational and public interest affairs and by providing a mechanism for bridging communications gaps; and,

WHEREAS, The South Dakota Public Television Network and Public Radio are public and noncommercial, and exist only to serve the interests and tastes of all the citizens of our State, to help fill public needs and meet public problems; and,

WHEREAS, A national month of recognition for public broadcasting stations called Festival '76 is being observed by the Public Broadcasting Service:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of March, 1976, as in South Dakota, and do urge the citizens of this State to make an effort to become aware of and support the valuable services provided by their public broadcasting stations.

PUBLIC BROADCASTING AWARENESS MONTH

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 20th day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Six

R. F. Kneip
